Scenes of Twisted Wreckage Following Early Morning Train Derailment on Illinois Central Near Stonefort

34 Illinois Central Cars Pile Up In Derailment Near Stonefort

Accident Occurs on Lewis Spur at Old Stonefort; No One Hurt; Cause Unknown

Thirty-four railroad cars smashed into a grotesque pile-up early today in a derailment near Stonefort as they accordioned in a space of 300 feet.

The accident occurred on the Lewis spur of the Illinois Central railroad at old Stonefort, which is about two miles east of Stonefort.

J. F. Sharkey, Illinois Central superintendent from Carbondale, said there were no injuries and the cause of the derailment, which occurred at 2:20 a. m., had not been determined. He identified the engineer as being named Baker and the conductor as L. Absher.

Mr. Sharkey said that two diesel units were pulling 138 cars, chiefly loaded coal cars, from Paducah, Ky., to Bluford, Ill., when the derailment occurred. He stated that 34 of the cars in the middle of the train figured in the derailment.

F. E. Colilns, general car foreman of the Illinois Central at Paducah, said that of the 34 cars derailed, 26 were loaded coal cars. four were empty box cars, one was a carload of steel and another was a carload of rail.

Wreckers had been dispatched from Paducah and Centralia to try to clean up the mess.

Survey of Wreckage

L. A. Hall of Carbondale, an aide to Superintendent Sharkey, took a Daily Register reporter on an inspection of the damage.

Wrecked cars were piled at all angles and railing was twisted into huge semi-circles. One box car was thrown a couple of hundred feet from the tracks and some hung precariously on embankments.

One huge car rested against a telephone pole but there apparently was no big damage to poles and wiring that ran dangerously close to the tracks. Three hundred feet of track was demolished.

Illinois Central men from Paducah, Carbondale and other Illinois Central points began arriving in large numbers and the public was being kept from the actual spot of derailment, about a hundred yards west of the crossing at old Stonefort, because of the danger involved.

Dulles Warns Soviets May Lead To Aggression

Calls for UN Support of Western Disarmament Plan

UNITED NATIONS (UP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles warned the United Nations General Assembly today that Russian meddling in the Middle East may lead to new aggression.

He urged full discussion of this critical situation at which the United States would produce "concrete proposals."

"The United States," Dulles said in a major policy speech, "stands ready to contribute generously to the economic development of the area under conditions which will promote and strengthen freedom and independence of nations.

"This prospect of enlarged freedom and well being will, however, never be realized so long as the area is looked upon as a subject of conquest and as a potential base for the domination of Europe, Asia and Africa."

Pleas for Disarmament

Dulles also called for U. N. support of Western disarmament proposals in hope that the Soviet Union could be brought to accept them.

He said that as long as Russia rejects the Western disarmament plans, the United States will continue testing nuclear arms for the development of "discriminating defensive weapons substantially free of radioactive fallout."

Dulles outlined the joint proposals put before the deadlocked London disarmament talks by the United States, Britain, France and Canada. The proposals were rejected there by Russia as a "sham."

"We cannot believe that that sweeping, almost contemptuous, Soviet rejection is final," he said. "Never before have so many nations, of so great military power, joined to make proposals so far-reaching. Any government that summarily rejects them would accept a frightful responsibility before all the world. Humanity faces a tragic future if the war threat is not brought under control."

Defends Atomic Tests

Dulles told the assembly the United States seeks, "by experiments now carefully controlled," to eliminate hazardous radioactive material from nuclear arms and to make them into "discriminating weapons, suitable for defense against attacking troops, submarines and bombers, and for interception of intercontinental missiles.

Death Takes Mrs. Winnie Newcomb, 80, of Raleigh

Mrs. Winnie Newcomb, 80, widow of Will Newcomb, died in the Ferrell hospital, Eldorado, at 11:55 p. m. Wednesday. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1951. She is survived by Mrs. Maudie Burkhart, whom she raised from a child; her sisters, Mrs. Maude Butler, Eldorado, and Mrs. Grace Oglesby, Harrisburg, and her brother Jack Whitlock, Raleigh.

The funeral will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday in the Raleigh Baptist church where she was a member. Rev. C. E. Russell, pastor of the church, will officiate, assisted by Rev. William Sims, East St. Louis.

The body will lie in state at the Eldorado funeral home until noon, Saturday, when it will be taken to the church to lie in state for two hours, preceding the funeral. The casket will be closed at the beginning of the funeral service and will not be reopened.

Wilson Orders New Cuts in Armed Forces

WASHINGTON (UP)—Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson ordered the armed forces today to reduce their armed strength to 2,600,000 men by next summer.

That would be a reduction of 100,000 men, the second cut of that size ordered in two months.

Wilson said the reduction will not affect "our deployments of major units abroad" and can be made "without impairment of our national security."

Wilson said the ordered reductions will be achieved "as promptly as possible."

As before, the Army will take the brunt of the new reduction. It will be required to pare 50,000 more men—or one-half the new reduction.

The new ceilings for the various services would be:

Army, 900,000; Navy, 645,000; Marine Corps, 180,000; Air Force, 875,000.

Wilson, with President Eisenhower's approval, had instructed the services on July 16 to reduce their authorized strength by 100,000 men by next Dec. 31.

Today's order, which Wilson said also had Eisenhower's approval, requires additional cuts to be carried out in the second half of fiscal 1958, or between next Jan. 1 and next June 30.

Wilson made one exception, telling the Marine Corps it could delay 8,000 of its reductions until "early in fiscal 1959."

Rockies Area Snowbound by Virtual Blizzard

Warn of Possible Flash Floods in 4 Southern States

By United Press

Portions of the northern Plains and Rockies lay snowbound today in one of the earliest "winters" to hit the area in 32 years.

At the same time, weathermen warned of possible flash floods in four southern states as the remnants of tropical storm Esther plowed inland.

A virtual blizzard in the North Wednesday buried Going-To-The-Sun highway in Glacier National Park under three feet of snow and whipped nearly a foot of snow across most of Montana.

The storm closed down the Helena airport, blocked highways and stranded four governors attending a Missouri Basin Inter-Agency Commission meeting. The governors, who had planned to leave Helena Wednesday, were Herschel C. Loveless of Iowa, Joe Foss of South Dakota, Milward Simpson of Wyoming and John E. Davis of North Dakota.

In the South, tropical storm Esther claimed at least four lives as she pounded across Louisiana and swept into Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Louisiana.

Forecasters warned of possible flash flooding in those states.

The frigid air mass in the North is expected to spread into much of the upper Mississippi Valley and the central Plains today.

Readings at Great Falls and Helena, Mont., plunged to lows of 31 and 34 degrees, respectively, early today, some 36 degrees below the seasonal normal. Temperatures in the 30s were reported as far east as northern Minnesota.

Couple Whose Romance Broke Up 51 Years Ago, Apply for License

EFFINGHAM, Ill. (UP)—A romance that ended 51 years ago bloomed again Wednesday in the Effingham County clerk's office.

The applicants for a marriage license were Albert Meyer, 72, and Mrs. Viola Cravens, both of Greenville.

They commented: "We almost got married 51 years ago."

But their first romance broke up and they married other persons. Mrs. Cravens' husband died 17 years ago, and Meyer had been a widower for 16 years.

Ethical Practices Committee

Sizzling AFL-CIO Report Charges Hoffa Violated Union Morality

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Anti-Hoffa drive in the embattled Teamsters Union spurted ahead today on the basis of a sizzling report on Teamster corruption by the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee.

Labor sources said highly placed Teamster officials now have joined the campaign to block the bid of James R. Hoffa, Midwest Teamster boss, to be president of the 1,400,000-member trucking union.

The committee report charged Hoffa, a Teamster vice president, "associated with, sponsored and promoted the interests of notorious labor racketeers" in violation of trade union morality.

A Sweeping Indictment

The report said the Teamsters Union as a whole is dominated by corrupt influences and does not measure up to AFL-CIO ethical standards. If adopted by the AFL-CIO Executive Council at its New York meeting next week, the report will undoubtedly lead to a clean-up-or-get-out order to the Teamsters.

The 64-page report was seen as a blunt warning to the Teamsters that election of Hoffa at their forthcoming Miami Beach, Fla., convention will assure their expulsion from the AFL-CIO. Hoffa is currently the leading contender for the presidency being vacated by Dave Beck, who is not seeking re-election.

The report said not only Hoffa but Beck and Teamster Vice President Frank Brewster also "extensively" used union funds for personal purposes. The findings amounted to a sweeping indictment of the present Teamster leadership and a warning to the Teamster membership that no cleanup will be acceptable while the present hierarchy remains in power.

Report Excluded Members

The committee specifically exempted rank and file members of the nation's largest union from its indictment, asserting they "want and are entitled to have a clean union."

The report said Hoffa violated trade union morality by misusing union funds, borrowing money from employers with whom the union dealt and benefitting personally from settling a strike.

Its strongest language was reserved for Hoffa's connections with New York mobster Johnny Dio and other "notorious labor racketeers."

"The list of many of Hoffa's proteges and friends reads like a rogues' gallery," the committee said. "We do not accept Hoffa's explanation that these associations were an attempt to rehabilitate juvenile delinquents."

Ordnance Plant At St. Louis to Close on Jan. 31

ST. LOUIS (UP)—The St. Louis ordnance plant will cease production Jan. 31, 1958, and go on a standby basis, with the subsequent release of 1,426 workers, authorities said Wednesday.

Maj. W. C. Vaughn, plant commanding officer, and B. E. Bassett, manager for the United States Defence Corp., a subsidiary of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. which operates the plant for the government, announced the closing.

A second Defense Corp. plant at the Weldon Springs Ordnance Works will lay off 39 of its present 46 employes next month, it was announced.

The closing came on the heels of the Navy Department's announced intention of closing the naval station at St. Louis-Lambert Airport as a defense expenditure curtailment.

Wednesday the Army announced the closing here and at two other ordnance plants, the Badger Ordnance Works, Baraboo, Wis., and the Milan Arsenal, Milan, Tenn.

A reduction of forces is planned at plants in Kingsport, Tenn., Burlington, Iowa; Joliet, Ill.; Texarkana, Tex., and Radford, Va.

Charges Ulterior Motives

Gov. Faubus Refuses to Appear At Hearing in Federal Court

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus today refused to appear in Federal Court at a hearing on the validity of four state segregation laws passed by the 1957 Arkansas General Assembly.

He said he refused "because of the obvious ulterior motives" of those who obtained the subpena.

The governor, in a letter to U. S. district clerk Grady Miller, acknowledged a subpena delivered to him Wednesday by U. S. Marshal Beal Kidd. He said, however, that he did not have to appear in court if he chose not to.

"While I have the utmost respect for your court and its valid processes, I must point out that almost from the beginning of our republic it has been uniformly held that the chief executive is not compelled to comply with a subpena unless he chooses to do so," the letter said.

"In this particular case, because of the obvious ulterior motives of those who obtained the subpena, I do not choose to comply with it, and will thank you to so advise the court, Faubus wrote.

Ten Negro ministers filed a suit in Federal Court asking for a determination of the constitutionality of four segregation bills enacted by the Arkansas Legislature earlier this year. A similar suit by a "disinterested person" has been filed in a state court.

The Arkansas Sovereignty Commission, headed by the governor as chairman, will hear a petition in Federal Court today to throw out the suit by the ministers and let the state courts determine the validity of the four acts.

Other developments:

NEWPORT, R. I.—President Eisenhower agreed to meet with Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-N. Y.) and other Negro leaders to discuss the integration crisis in Little Rock where National Guardsmen are blocking Negroes from Central High.

OKLAHOMA CITY — Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler supported a strong civil rights stand despite threats of southern Democrats to organize a third party. He criticized Eisenhower's handling of the Little Rock incident and said "Harry Truman would have solved this a long time ago."

NASHVILLE—Segregation leader John Kasper was released from jail on $2,500 bond put up by a fellow segregationist. Kasper spent a week in jail on a charge of inciting a riot shortly before a school ordered integrated was dynamited.

Denies Application For Rehearing

County Judge Trafton Dennis denied Wednesday an application of Ed Cawthon for a rehearing on Cawthon's sentence of one year to the state farm at Vandalia. Cawthon, from Eldorado, was sentenced on a charge of resisting Eldorado police. He was represented in the rehearing matter by Atty. Lester Lightfoot.

Lose Home in Fire

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pyle, Rt. 2 (Brushy township), Galatia, lost their home and all its contents at noon Wednesday in a fire which is said to have started from defective wiring. They are at the home of a son, Floyd Springs, Rt. 4, Thompsonville.

Train Hits Loaded Truck

Wreck Spreads Cyanide Pellets

THAMESVILLE, Ont. (UP) — A passenger train ripped apart a tractor-trailer loaded with 15 tons of deadly cyanide pellets just before midnight and left this town's 1,200 residents in fear of their lives.

This morning, still faced with dangers of children picking up poisonous pellets, of a poisoned water supply and poisonous gas fumes, Police Chief Robert Letts said the state of emergency might last for three days.

The speeding Canadian National Railways train hit the 25-ton truck trailer rig of Truck Transport Co., Dearborn, Mich., at the east edge of the business district.

The crash tore the trailer loose from the tractor, ripped the trailer into two parts, carried the larger part a quarter-mile as golf-ball size cyanide pellets spewed out, and tore up electric ines and poles.

Truck driver J. C. Sluder, about 35, Wayne, Mich., crawled out with head and arm injuries and was taken to Chatham Hospital. The train engine was put out of commission and the train delayed while another engine was brought up.

There was $150,000 damage. Ontario Highway 2 had to be closed and a detour set up. Lights over a 35-mile area were out until 3 a. m. People were ordered to stay in their homes. Civil defense and army reserve forces were called out. Railroad and truck company workers rushed to the scene.

By daylight, 150 men were working in the 400 yards along the railroad tracks. They swept the pellets into piles, shoveled them into cardboard cannisters, loaded the cartons onto trucks and took them for burial in bulldozer gouged ditches. Some workers probed through bushes and weeds with gloves in a pellet-by pellet search.

School children, most accompanied by their mothers, were led past the wreck scene under police escort lest a child pick up a pellet, which could kill with even a taste of cyanide.

Police called Dow Chemical Co., Sarnia, Ont., and two chemists covered the cyanide with lime before the workers started scooping it up.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

(Editor's Note—Drew Pearson, continuing his reports from the vital Near East, today interviews Syria's pro-Communist strong man, General Bizri.)

DREW PEARSON Says: U. S. Apt To Find Syria Model Soviet Outpost While Bizri Is In Power; Syrian Strong Man Says Improvement of Relations Is "Entirely A Problem For U. S."; Is Not Afraid Of Losing Syrian Independence Through Soviet's Aid.

DAMASCUS. — (Via Radio)—I have just interviewed the top pro-Communist and military strong man of Syria, Gen. Afif Bizri, chief of staff of the Syria army He was extremely frank and not unfriendly, but was extremely discouraging as far as Syria's future relations with America are concerned.

In brief, the United States is likely to find Syria a model Soviet outpost in the Arab world as long as General Bizri remains in power.

Getting to see Bizri was not difficult. But getting to Syria was difficult. In New York, the Syrian consul flatly refused to give me a visa. In Washington, the Syrian embassy flatly refused to discuss the matter. Finally, I hired a taxi in Lebanon and drove one hour to the Syrian border without a visa on the chance that I could talk my way across the border. It worked.

The border was a madhouse of travelers from Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia, going and coming. The harassed border authorities gave me a visa and I continued across the desert past camels and Cadillacs, donkeys of the kind that carried Joseph and Mary, buses crammed with Arab travelers going to Damascus to see its international fair.

Finally, out of the desert emerged trees and a river tumbling from the mountains—an oasis on which was built the oldest city in the world to continue functioning from ancient days until now.

I located General Bizri in the army headquarters built by the French when Syria was under French mandate. Bizri himself, a graduate of the French-Syrian military academy, came to the United States in 1951 for the United Nations' mediation on the Israeli-Syrian boundary. He is slender and grim-lipped, with a narrow, well-trimmed mustache. He once presided over a military court trying alleged traitors and there were times during our interview today when he looked as if I were on trial, too.

"U. S. PROBLEM"

"What has happened to the once friendly relations of the United States and Syria?" I opened the interview.

"Improvement of those relations is entirely a problem for the United States," he replied. "Syria did nothing to justify this American attack. All Syria wants is independednce. When I read of your fight for independence I get encouraged and feel Americans who believe in independence should be of good heart toward us and happy when they see us following their example. This is all Syria has done. This is what caused the campaign against Syria."

"Aren't you afraid you'll lose your independence when you take arms from Russia?" I asked.

"Why didn't you sell us arms," he parried.

"The State Department informs me that it offered arms to Syria," I said.

"The State Department forgot to tell you," General Bizri replied, "that it attached political conditions to those arms which would have ended our independence."

Later I checked with American officials who innformed me that exactly the same terms were offered Syria as were offered other Arab countries—the arms were not to be used for aggression, were not to be transferred to another country, and an American military mission would be stationed in Syria to ascertain that the terms were carried out.

WON'T SELI INDEPENDENCE

"Aren't you afraid of losing your independence when you receive money from Russia to build roads, airports and harbors?" I asked.

"We don't sell our independence for a harbor," Syria's chief of staff replied. "If we find the Soviet tries to infringe on our sovereignty, we will stop every project."

"Assuming we have made some mistakes," I asked, "how can we improve our relations from here on?"

"The mistakes of the United States are not theory, but fact," the general shot b k. "The first step the United States can take is not to give ear to such hysterical persons as Charles Malik." He referred to the foreign minister of Lebanon, a Christian Arab and stanch friend of the U. S.

"You can also not consult with such smugglers who fled their country as Sherif Nasser of Jordan," he added, referring to the uncle of King Hussein now with ex-President of Syria Shishekly "The best trade they deal with leads to bad roads. I am ashamed when I stretch my hand to shake hands with Americans who do business with these smugglers. Many Americans on our embassy staff did business with them," the general continued. "Those whom we asked to leave our country were the most active. They had contacts with civilians and with military officers plotting against our regime and to kill me What the Americans did not know was that these officers immediately reported to me."

I asked Bizri who these alleged American plotters were and he named Col. Robert Malloy, military attache; Vice Consul Francis Jetton and second secretary Howard Stone. Later the American embassy vigorously denied the charges.

"These Americans," Bizri continued, "paid money to Syrian officers to overthrow our regime. We have this money—about 100,000 Syrian pounds—which we will show at the trial. Charges will be officially published in a few days and the trial will follow later. You in America pay taxes and this is what your tax money is used for.

U. S. PAPERS "DON'T PRINT FACTS"

"Your newspapers learn the facts correctly but don't print these facts. They print completely the opposite of what they learn. This is unfortunate, but it doesn't deter us from completing our program and defending our country. We hope that honorable people in America will come here and learn the truth. We would like to establish relations with honorable Americans."

General Bizri smiled at the start of our interview. He did not smile toward the end. He spoke like a man who, though wrong, fervently believes he is right and will follow his policy to the bitter end.

The United States, I concluded, will have increasing trouble with Syria under General Bizri.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God. Matt. 5:8.

They are looking for God. Some ill informed people imagine they have disposed of God by calling the manifold miracles of creation as caused by nature. Solving words get us no where. In his book The Wisdom of the Body, Alex Carol clearly saw the hand of God. So did Fabre whom Darwin called the incomparable observer.

FCC Opens Door For Pay TV with Trial Run Order

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — A new battle of the airwaves is on for the right to sell the public pay-as-you-see television.

The Federal Communications Commission opened the door to a scramble among competing toll TV methods by agreeing tentatively Wednesday to consider authorizing trial runs sometime after March 1 next year of the new systems. The try-out period will be for three years.

The FCC said that its decision does not constitute a commitment that trials will be permitted or that if allowed, pay television will be authorized later on a regular commercial basis.

But the decision marked a significant step in the FCC's long dispute over whether it could or should authorize subscription television.

Recover Bodies Of Four of Five American Oil Men

CARACAS, Venezuela (U.P.) — Search crews have recovered the bodies of four of the five American oil men killed in a plane crash earlier this month, it was reported today.

An official of the Avensa Airlines said the search for the missing man, identified as John J. Tribbey, was continuing.

The plane carrying the five Americans and a crew of four Venezuelans crashed into a heavily-wooded mountain slope in southwestern Venezuela on Sept. 3.

Ground search parties organized by the Socony Mobil Oil Co., employer of the Americans, and Avensa reached the scene and reported finding only eight bodies.

In addition to Tribbey, the Caracas office of Socony Mobil Co. identified the Americans on the plane as Horace L. Benson, Los Angeles; Arthur L. Clark, formerly of Buffalo, N. Y.; John J. Martin, formerly of Cleveland, and Oliver Ormond, formerly of Forest, Miss. Tribbey was a former resident of Vanderbilt, Tex.

All five have been long-time residents of Venezuela.

Flu Cases Pass 100,000 Mark

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — The Public Health Service reported today the number of Asian flu cases in the United States has climbed to more than 100,000.

A major outbreak is underway in Mississippi, where from 20,000 to 25,000 cases are reported, officials said.

Dr. Carl C. Dauer, influenza control officer of the PHS, said the Mississippi situation "could be the beginning" of a true nationwide epidemic.

Although Asian flu cases have been reported in 37 states, so far all have been localized outbreaks, with the possible exception of Mississippi.

Louisiana has had from 15,000 to 20,000 cases, possibly more, Dauer said. But these have been concentrated in two or three parishes (counties), and so far there has been no indication that the Louisiana epidemic is breaking out for a wider spread.

Other states which have had "sizable" local outbreaks are New York, Texas, Utah and California, Dauer said.

Live Shell Kills 9 Israeli Children

JERUSALEM, Israel (U.P.)—Grief-stricken villagers today surrendered to police dozens of 9-year-old live shells of the type that exploded accidentally and killed 15 children Tuesday.

Residents of Sandale and nearby Mukeble, where the children lived, started the drive Wednesday and police stockpiled them in a remote area for dismantling by demolition experts today.

They said they expected residents of many other villages in the area, close to the Jordanian border, to turn in their lethal souvenirs of the 1948 Palestine war.

The villages of Sandale and Mukeble were scenes of anguish and mourning Wednesday as funerals were held for the 15 young victims, some of whom had not even been born at the time of the Palestine war.

Three others were wounded, one of whom still was in critical condition today.

Tuesday's tragedy was caused by a shell which had been unearthed a few days before by an Arab ploughman who did not report its discovery. The children were playing with it when it exploded.

Man Nabbed at Bridge Fleeing White Co. Law

SHAWNEETOWN, Ill. (Special) —A 28-year-old Kentucky man who was being pursued by White County officials was halted at the Shawneetown bridge Saturday morning by a road block set up by Gallatin County Sheriff Millard Holloway and Jim Fox, deputy.

It all started near Norris City Friday afternoon when officers were alerted that a car containing two men and a woman was driving all over the highway on Route 1 headed northeast out of Norris City.

White County Sheriff Kenneth Cole caught up with the car near Norris City and loaded all three of the passengers into his car. One of the men, Edward A. Parish of Smithland, Ky., put up an argument and the sheriff had to use force to get him into the car. As Cole started to drive to Carmi, Parish leaped from the car and dashed toward a patch of woods.

A general alarm was sounded and a posse of some 15 men headed by Norwood Proctor, deputy, started an intensive search through the woods. The hunt lasted until late at night but the man was not found.

On Saturday morning the officers received a tip that a stranger had hired a Norris City taxi to take him to Shawneetown. They immediately set out in that direction to try and catch the cab, at the same time alerting the Gallatin County officers.

Holloway and Fox nabbed the man at the bridge as he was trying to get over into Kentucky.

Parish's companions in the car were Virgil Eugene Buford, 24, also of Smithland who was driving the car, and Clara Lee Rivere of Paducah. Parish is being held in the White County jail while his record is being checked. Buford was charged with drunken driving and the woman with public drunkenness.

A Comparison

SALT LAKE CITY—(UP)—An ambitious reporter here figured out that the number of persons killed in traffic accidents in Salt Lake City during the past 20 years, more than 500 in all, was three times the number of pioneers who entered this valley with Mormon church leader Brigham Young in 1847.

Dr. Waters Teaching In Seminary Extension At East Gary, Indiana

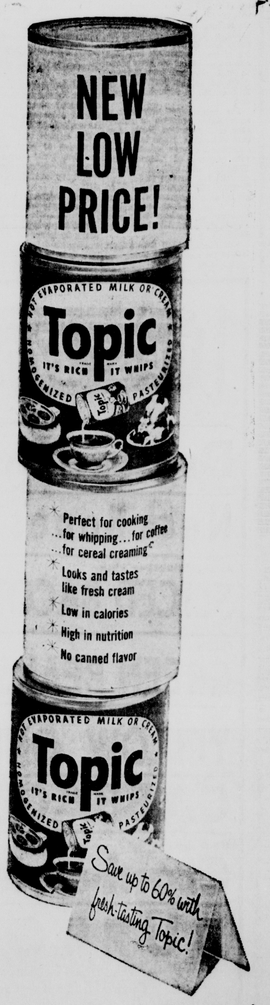

Dr. H. L. Waters

Dr. H. L. Waters, dean of the Baptist Seminary Extension Department in Harrisburg, and Baptist hour speaker will be in East Gary, Ind., for the next two months to teach in the Seminary Extension that meets in the East Gary Baptist church.

He is preaching each Sunday in one of East Gary Baptist Missions and will help the Rev. G. C. Rowe, the pastor of East Gary Baptist church, in a revival. Rev. Rowe was with the Dorrisville Baptist church in a revival last spring.

Dr. and Mrs. Waters are guests in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Rowe.

He is teaching Old Testament, Christian Doctrine and Acts.

DAR Manuals for Citizenship Presented in Constitution Program at Dorrisville School

During an assembly program at the Dorrisville school Wednesday morning D. A. R. Manuals for Citizenship were presented to the school.

The presentation was made by Mrs. Mary Lindsay, language arts teacher at the school and chairman of National Defense for Michael Hillegas chapter of Daughters of American Revolution. The manuals were accepted for the school by Mrs. Ruth Girot, American history and civics teacher. Also presented to Dorrisville school by the D. A. R. during the program was a chart showing the history of the evolution of the American Flag.

Ten years ago when Mrs. Lindsay was Regent of the local chapter of D. A. R. she secured manuals for the Dorrisville school and the manuals have been in constant use since, teachers considering the books most valuable in the teaching of the Constitution and good citizenship. After ten years of use th ebooks were well worn and some misplaced, so this year the D. A. R. consented to furnish new manuas.

The presentations were made at an assembly program in observance of Constitution Week. Seventh and eighth grade pupils had decorated the huge bulletin board with pictures of "America the Beautiful" and original drawings of Columbus' arrival in the New World. This served as a background of the program, which opened with the student body singing the National Anthem and repeating the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Mrs. Lindsay then gave a short talk on the meaning of liberty and the history of the Constitution. Pupils joined in singing "America the Beautiful" and concluded with the singing of "America."

In her talk, Mrs. Lindsay said "Many things have changed since our forefathers came to America, but the responsibility of keeping freedom's flame brightly burning remains and grows steadily greater. To each of us, young and old, men and women, boys and girls, is entrusted the sacred duty of protecting and preserving this America of ours. Let us join in the chorus once again and let our voices ring out—

'Long may our land be bright
With freedom's Holy light
Protect us by Thy might Great God, our King'."

Plan to Form Teen-Age Bowling League for Students at the HTHS

Neal and Ross Cottom, owners of the Harrisburg Bowl, recently announced plans for the formation of a teenage bowling league for students of HTHS.

The original plans call for the formation of eight boys' teams and four girls' teams. The league will probably meet after school on Tuesdays or Wednesdays.

More information will appear as the league progresses.

Jan. 8 is a legal holiday in Louisiana in honor of Andrew Jackson for his defeat of the British at New Orleans in 1815.

Parents Asked To Review Polio Shot Consent Slips

In the spring of 1957 the Saline County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis gave the Harrisburg public schools $100 to be used for the protection of indigent or underprivileged children against poliomyelitis.

The Medical Advisory committee, which directs and guides the health program of the school, approved a clinic program so that the greatest number might be helped.

The Egyptian Health Department is authorized to release when possible the needed amount of vaccine to the school nurse and to meet expenses such as clinical, doctor fees, supplies etc. through the gift check.

Parent consent slips were released to every child in the schools. The explanation read "if he has not had his shots and you can not afford to get them on a private pay basis from your family doctor." The great number of signed consents causes the school nurse to wonder if parents read the explanation of the clinic quaifications. Please contact the child's teacher if there has been a misunderstanding, Ethel Mathias, school nurse, urges.

EBENEZER PRESBYTERIAN HOLDS REVIVAL SERVICES

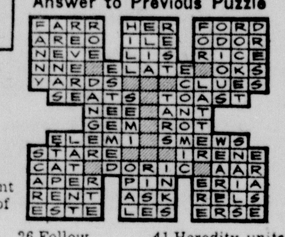

Revival services are underway each evening at Ebenezer Presbyterian church two miles west of West End. The Rev. Vola Sittig is the evangelist and Merom Hausser the song leader. The pastor, the Rev. Dean Guye, invites the public to attend each evening at 7:30.

Bull Dogs Open South Seven Play Against Marion Here Friday Night

Will Meet the Wildcats at Taylor Field

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs, who already have shown they are a fine defensive unit, open their South Seven conference football season at Taylor Field Friday night against Marion with game time 7:30.

Marion the past few years has not been the league doormat like it was for a while. In fact, last year the Wildcats whipped the Bull Dogs, 20 to 0. Wendell Starrick, former Johnston City mentor, coaches the Marion gridders.

Harrisburg played a powerful defensive game last Friday night at Murphysboro and lost 7-0 when Eddie Shaw of Murphysboro grabbed a fumbled ball and ran 56 or 58 yards to score in the last half minute.

But Head Coach Lawrence Calufetti Wednesday afternoon reported the spirit and morale of his squad have been excellent this week.

No Change in Starting Lineup

"The boys are in good physical condition," he said. The boys came out of the game suffering only some minor injuries."

Calufetti, who announced that the coaches will appear on Bill Plater's Studio Show on WSIL-TV at 5 p. m. Thursday, announced he would use the same starting lineup that started at Murphysboro which means it will be as follows:

Hopes to Use More Players

At Murphysboro, Darrell Biggs, 197-pound junior, alternated with Endsley at guard, playing on defense, and Calufetti said he would use the same system against Marion.

"I hope I can use more than the 17 men I used against Murphysboro when we meet Marion Friday night," Calufetti said.

Eldorado, Marion's first opponent, won with ease at Marion last week, 34 to 6. Eldorado made 12 first downs to 6 for Marion and outgained Marion from scrimmage, 384 yards to 93. Marion got away several short passes.

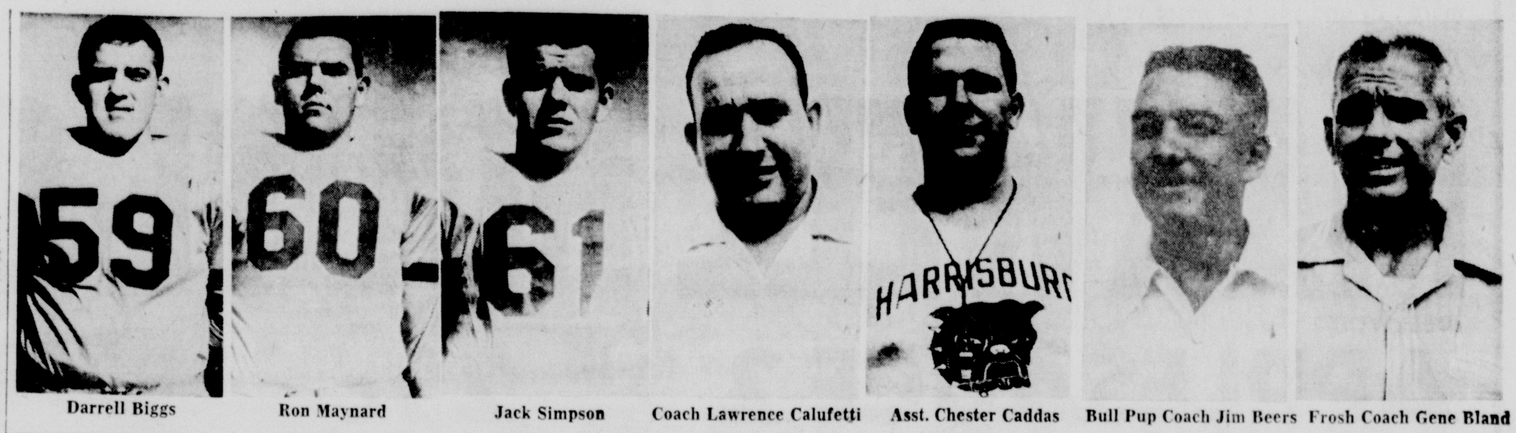

The Wildcats had one fine ballcarrier in the Eldorado tilt — 170-pound Jim Pluck, a senior halfback who raced 80 yards to one touchdown and had another 30-yard run. Pluck must be contained for the Bull Dogs to win.

Other Games

Four other schools in the South Seven will be participating in opening conference games tomorrow night also, Benton travelling to Centralia and Herrin to Mt. Vernon. The other loop school, West Frankfort, will entertain Johnston City.

Other southern Illinois games will be:

Eldorado at McLeansboro, Cairo at Cape Girardeau, Shawnee at Norris City, Fairfield at Mt. Carmel, Carbondale at Metropolis, Du Quoin at Sparta, Elkville at Carbondale University School, Murphysboro at Pinckneyville, Christopher at Sesser, Chester at Anna Jonesboro and Carterville at Zeigler.

Quail Hunting Season Longer

Illinois hunters will have an extra 10 days of quail hunting with a slightly lower bag limit in the only major change in the hunting seasons, according to Paul Smith, district conservation officer.

The dates for upland game hunting and trapping were set by Administrative Order with approval of the Advisory Board to the Department under provisions of the revised Game Code established by the 70th General Assembly.

Here are the hunting seasons:

BOBWHITE QUAIL — November 16 to December 25, inclusive. Daily limit 8; possession limit from the second day on, 16. (This represents a 40-day season instead of 30 days, with bag limit reduced from 10 and possession limit from 20.)

RABBIT — November 23 to January 20, inclusive. Daily limit 5; possession limit 10. (No change over the previous season.)

RACCOON, OPOSSUM, SKUNK AND WEAZEL (hunting only) — Northern zone, from 12 noon, November 1 to 12 noon, January 15; Southern zone, from 12 noon, November 15 to 12 noon, January 15. (No change).

Daily limit of ducks is 4, with 8 in posession from second day on; limit of geese is 5, but only two can be Canada geese or subspecies.

DOVES — September 1 to October 15, inclusive. Daily bag limit 10.

SQUIRRELS — Southern zone, August 1 to October 15, inclusive; Northern zone, September 1 to October 31, inclusive. Daily limit 5, possession 10.

BEAVER — From 12 noon, February 15, 1958, to 12 noon, March 31, 1958. Season limit, 20. (This represents an additional 15 days.)

Marion Muzzle-Loading Shotgun Expert Says Pioneer Way Is More Fun

By SAM HANCOCK
United Press Staff Correspondent

MARION, Ill. (UP) — Robert C. Jones steps into America's past for his sport. He's a muzzle-loading shotgun expert.

Jones, 30, an insurance salesman here, holds the national championship among muzzle-loading trap-shooting enthusiasts.

He says that loading a gun the way pioneers and Indian scouts did is more fun than mechanically slipping shells in a shotgun.

"I guess there's something about the smell of that black powder smoke pouring back into your face that adds something to hunting with a muzzle-loader," Jones said.

Jones, who uses an English-made double - barreled muzzle - loader that's an estimated 75 years old, said "I'd rather have it than all three of my factory-made shotguns."

"Shooting a muzzle-loader takes more skill than a modern shotgun," Jones maintained. "You've got to use a little Kentucky windage because of the delay in firing."

Game Has Better Chance

But he finds that it increases the challenge in hunting.

"The game has a better chance," he said, "and you've got to be more careful with your shots."

Jones estimates that he can load both barrels and get off two shots in 50 seconds. He bagged pheasants, quail, squirrels and rabbits that way in season last year.

Muzzle - loading means shoving powder, shot and wadding down the barrel. Jones said he believes it's cheaper than shells, but he conceded that "modern shotguns are a trifle safer."

Here's his formula for muzzle loading: First 3½ grams of black powder, then two wads, 1½ ounces of shot and another wad. For added safety, the cap isn't inserted until just before firing.

Wins National Title

On comparative costs, Jones said that a box of 25 shells might cost around $3.00 but the "makings" for 25 muzzle-loading shots costs about $1.25.

Jones won the national championship at Friendship, Ind., where he blasted 46 of 50 clay pigeons with his muzzle-loader. The previous high was 44.

He almost didn't enter the championship shoot, but, he said, "The gun had a good feel that day and I decided to take a crack at it even though I hadn't been shooting very well."

The newly crowned champion said he hopes to organize an association of muzzle-loading shotgun enthusiasts in southern Illinois—even though it will mean more competition for him.

"A muzzle-loader even has its advantages around the house," Jones said. "You probably would not think about dragging out your factory-made shotgun to show your guests, but a muzzle-loader, now that's different!"

FBI Denies New Censorship

WASHINGTON (UP)—The FBI today denied that it has ordered its agents to "impose any censorship" on the press or local police.

The statement was the FBI's answer to an Indianapolis newspaper story about a new order issued by its agents in charge there on use of official information.

The FBI said the order was designed only to keep information from being released that might hurt innocent persons, snag its investigations or allow identification records to be misused.

Archie Moore Only Even Money In Anthony Bout

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Mysterious Archie Moore, the world's oldest boxing champion, is only an even-money favorite to retain the light-heavyweight crown that he risks here Friday against 22-year-old Tony Anthony.

Despite the fact that he hasn't lost to a light-heavyweight since he dropped a 10round decision to Harol Johnson 'way back in 1951 before he won the title, the oddsmakers figure that age must eventually catch up with the champ—and this may be the time.

Archie, at least 40 and possibly as old as 44, has been keeping the experts guessing all through his training period here. He has kept his telephone number a secret and he has talked to very few newsmen.

But there is no doubt about the fact that he's in condition.

"He's at the 175 - pound mark right now and will have no trouble making that figure at the weigh-in tomorrow," said Jake Shugru from the Moore training camp.

But if Archie has been hiding out, there is nothing but frankness and optimism in the Anthony camp.

While young Tony relaxed in preparation for the biggest night of his young life, manager Ernie Braca did the talking.

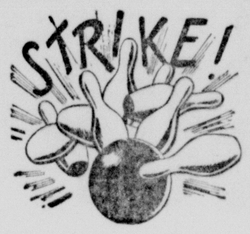

"We're as ready as it is possible to be," said Braca. "Physically and mentally Tony is in perfect condition."

The bout will be telecast nationally, but will be blacked out within a radius of 150 miles of Los Angeles.

Illini Without Injuries Could Be Surprise Team

CHICAGO (UP) — If Illinois can escape injury, Ray Eliot's 16th Illini football team could be a surprise factor in the Big Ten race.

Eliot has two good ends in Rod Hanson and Rich Kreitling, a good tackle in Ron Nietupski, two good fullbacks in Ray Nitschke and Jack Delveaux, and two good halfbacks in Dale Smith and speedball Bob Mitchell.

At quarterback, two juniors, Billy Offenbecher and Tom Haller, are battling for the job and either could turn into a competent Big Ten signal caller.

Despite gaps at the other positions and general lack of experience and depth, Eliot was somewhat optimistic about the future. "I like this team," he said. "These are good hard working kids and they've got good spirit. Our lack of depth and the amount of greenness hurts us in men we've got to use. Any time a first team man goes down, we've got to put in a green player."

Eliot tabbed his ball club as "ordinary" in several respects, including both punting and passing. "I don't know if we're particularly fast," he said, "and I don't know if we're as fast as last year."

Passing could improve, he conceded, with development of his quarterbacks. "I'm hoping Offenbecher will take over," he said "Bill is not a great passer, but our boys have faith in him and he's a leader. Offenbecher is our most improved player so far, and I hope that's not just wishful thinking because it means so much in a quarterback."

Eliot believed that in Hanson, Kreitling and another end, Ron Hill, his team would have better receivers than in recent years, thus providing another aid to improved passing. "But the other team has something to say about how good your passing it, too," he said.

The Illini could be a better team than last year, he said, adding that the 1956 club in his opinion was better than its record of one win, four losses and two ties for a seventh-place deadlock in the Big Ten chase. "We lost one game by one point, lost another by three and tied two," he said. "So we didn't win four games by four points."

Eliot's team will be the smallest and greenest, he said, since 1953, and one of the smallest he's ever had, so he said he would be "mighty proud to finish in the first division."

What he didn't say was that the 1953 team, the smallest he ever had and green too, won five Big Ten games and lost only one to tie for the championship.

Braves Feel Worst Is Over After 8-2 Win from Giants As Cards Lose to Dodgers

By United Press

From Milwaukee owner Lou Perini right down to the Milwaukee bat boy there was a feeling today that the worst was over, and the rest of the National League took the Braves' four-game lead to mean that the pennant race was over.

The Braves could almost feel the flag in their fingers after they beat the Giants, 8-2, Wednesday night for their third straight victory while the Dodgers defeated the faltering second-place Cardinals, 6-1.

The overjoyed Perini had his eyes and ears on both games from a New York hotel room where he watched the Brooklyn-St. Louis contest on TV while listening to the Milwaukee-New York tussle on the radio at the same time.

"I feel 100 per cent better now," he said happily, after both games were over. "It looks as if we're over our hitting slump and the World Series doesn't seem so far away now."

Obviously back in the groove at the plate, the Braves pounded southpaw Johnny Antonelli and four Giant relievers for 11 hits, including three by Johnny Logan and a homer by Andy Pafko. Lew Burdette, meanwhile, scored his 16th victory with a four-hitter, one of which was Willie Mays' 35th homer in the sixth inning.

The victory reduced Milwaukee's "magic number" to six with nine games left to play.

Cincinnati edged Pittsburgh, 2-1, and the Cubs topped the Phillies, 6-4, in the other National League games.

The Yankees reduced their "magic number" to four and retained their 6½-game lead in the American League with a 4-3 victory over the Tigers. The White Sox stayed alive with a 7-5 win over Baltimore; Kansas City licked Boston, 2-1, and Cleveland whipped Washington, 8-3.

Cards Err Thrice

Young Don Drysdale was credited with his 16th victory for the Dodgers although Ed Roebuck bailed him out in the ninth. Charlie Neal rapped Lindy McDaniel for a two-run homer in the third inning and the Dodgers added their final four runs with the aid of three Cardinal errors.

Smokey Burgess' pinch single in the ninth broke up a fine pitching duel between Brooks Lawrence of the Redlegs and Bob Smith of the Pirates. Lawrence, who drove in Cincinnati's first run, hurled a seven-hitter for his 16th victory. The only run he allowed was an eighth-inning homer by Bob Skinner. Smith yielded seven hits, also.

Home runs by Ernie Banks and Walt Moryn of the Cubs helped rookie Dick Drott record his 15th victory of the campaign. Banks drove in three runs with a double and his 42nd homer to send Robin Roberts of the Phils down to his 21st defeat.

Yogi Berra was pretty much the whole show in the Yankees' victory over the Tigers. He drove in all of New York's runs with his 21st and 22nd homers of the year off Duke Maas. Sal Maglie was the winner although Bob Turley turned in a brilliant two-inning relief job by striking out three of the six Detroit batters he faced.

Rookie Hits First Homer

Lanky Ron Jackson, recalled by the White Sox from Indianapolis, smashed a three-run homer that climaxed a five-run fifth inning and powered Chicago to its triumph over Baltimore. Jim Wilson posted his 15th victory with late-inning relief help from Gerry Staley. Rookie Lennie Green hit his first major league homer for the Orioles.

Cardinals Glum; Admit Need Help To Win Pennant

ST. LOUIS (UP) —The glum St. Louis Cardinals admitted today they're now in a spot where they need "help" if they're going to win the National League pennant.

"We can still win this thing," Manager Fred Hutchinson insisted after Wednesday night's jolting 6-1 loss to the Brooklyn Dodgers. "But we need help now. Somebody else has to beat the Braves, too."

Hutchinson was referring to the fact that the Cards now trail the league leading Braves by four games in the "lost" column instead of three. A three-game deficit they could wipe out themselves by sweeping a three-game series from the Braves next week, but now the Braves have to lose one game to somebody else. Each team has nine games remaining.

Dodger Gil Hodges said he thought the Cards still had a "good chance."

"They're really hitting now," he said. "Don Drysdale had really good stuff but they hit him hard. It's true they didn't score well but that's just the breaks of the game. I think Cincinnati might still have a lot to say about who wins."

The Cards and Braves both have three games left with the Redlegs.

Wednesday night's game was one of bitter frustration for the Cards. They tagged Drysdale for 11 solid blows but only one of them, Wally Moon's 24th home run in the eighth inning, paid off.

Three times before Moon's belt they put three men on base in an inning. In one instance an unsuccessful steal thwarted them, in another an outfield throw to the plate was the barb, and in the third it was a double play, sandwiched between a single and a double before another single.

Norris City Wins Regional Junior Hi Softball Tourney

Norris City copped the title game of the regional Junior high school softball tournament and will participate in the south state meet at Benton next week.

In the championship game Wednesday afternoon Norris City edged past Harrisburg 2-1.

It was a fast, well-played game, taking less than one hour to complete the seven innings.

The winners grabbed a one-run lead in the first inning when Bowers, first baseman, blasted a home run to deep right field. Norris City scored again in the fifth on a hit and two errors.

Harrisburg scored its lone tally in the seventh.

Norris City had two runs, five hits and three errors. Harrisburg had one run, three hits and also errored three times.

There were eight schools in the regional tournament, which was played on the Harrisburg VFW diamond, played Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Gil Turner Wins Close Decision Over Virgil Akins

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (UP) — Gil Turner of Philadelphia today demanded another crack at the welterweight championship after his 10 - round upset victory over second - ranked Virgil Akins in their nationally - televised fight Wednesday night.

Turner, who won a close decision by pressing Akins throughout the bout and shaking off his opponent's sharp counterpunches, demanded a title fight with welterweight king Carmen Basilio should the latter lose his middleweight crown bid later this month against Sugar Ray Robinson.

"If Basilio loses, promoter Herman Taylor is going to offer him a $75,000 guarantee to defend against Gil in Philadelphia," Turner's manager George Katz said. "And if Basilio wins the middleweight title and vacates the welterweight, we're claiming the championship."
